[Toby Brooking, gent turned up in Helen Allen's papers and he was found in Durham. It seems like Tony was head-hunted from Bristol Cathedral to Durham Cathedral. He was a church singer and also copied music. A lot is still in the Durham Cathedral Library. A radio programme about cathedral choristers (pure chance the radio was on) put Rosemary on the track to Durham. Dr Brian Crosby (who figured in the radio broadcast) had written a book about music manuscripts in Durham and done a lot of research on Toby. The time is the first half of the 17th cenbtury.]
